Opening-Prices were a shade under Wednesday's close, but almost immedistely after the opening the market resumed its advance, and prices rose charply with great volume of activity in ing issues. There seemed to be buying of an important kind in all stand- York at 178. ard stocks.

In Steel the activity was on a large scale, blocks of 2,000 shares or more being quite common. Room traders tried make a bear argument out of the fact that the corporation now has 121.00 | issue 20.0 stockholders, the largest number in its standing. history, asserting that increase indicated distribution by large interests, but such contention did not seem to have much in it. Less Steel is held in names of commission houses than was formerly November. the case, and what has gone out of the Street has been taken by investors.

Union Pacific vied with Reading in strength, although it was much less active. The great activity in the latte issue on the advance was in man places regarded as an indication tha the stock's rise was near its culmina

Although room traders and a major ity of the commission houses wer strongly in favor of reaction, the buy ing was sufficient to absorb all offer- ened after the call ings during the first hour on every slight recession. The activity lessened and a few issues like Missouri Pacific were under pressure and declined
